Taylor Morgan
Seattle, WA | taylorm@uw.edu | (206) 555-4567 | linkedIn.com/in/example

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Arts in Law, Societies, and Justice | University of Washington | Seattle, WA | June 2025

- Minors in Human Rights and Public Policy
- Relevant Coursework: Constitutional Law, Race and Justice, Public Policy Analysis, Legal Writing

EXPERIENCE

Community Justice Intern | King County Dept of Public Defense | Seattle, WA | Jan 2025 – May 2025

- Supported community outreach efforts by connecting underserved populations to legal and social services
- Facilitated legal education workshops on tenants' rights and public defense services
- Collected and analyzed community feedback on barriers to accessing public defense, contributing to a report presented to county leadership
- Collaborated with public defenders and social workers to identify holistic solutions for clients beyond the courtroom

Legislative Affairs Intern | Office of State Representative Jane Doe | Olympia, WA | Jan 2024 – Mar 2024

- Tracked proposed legislation and analyzed policy implications for committee members
- Drafted constituent correspondence and policy briefs on criminal justice reform and housing
- Attended committee hearings and reported on policy discussions for internal use

Honors Thesis | UW Department of Law, Societies, and Justice | Seattle, WA | Sep 2024 – Jun 2025

- Designed and conducted an independent, year-long research project examining the impact of decarceration policies on recidivism rates in Washington State
- Analyzed legislative history, policy reports, and Department of Corrections data to evaluate the effectiveness of early release programs and community-based alternatives
- Interviewed formerly incarcerated individuals and reentry service providers to integrate qualitative insights with policy analysis
- Presented the 30+ page thesis titled "Beyond Bars: Evaluating the Efficacy of Prison Reform and Decarceration Policy in Washington State" at the UW Undergraduate Research Symposium

LEADERSHIP & CAMPUS INVOLVEMENT

Vice President | UW Pre-Law Society | Sep 2023 – Jun 2025

- Organized panel events with attorneys, law students, and judges to expose students to legal careers
- Led a mentorship program matching underclassmen with experienced pre-law students

Student Representative | ASUW Student Senate – Policy and Advocacy Committee | Oct 2022 – Jun 2024

- Drafted student resolutions on equity in campus policing and accessible legal resources
- Collaborated with university officials to advocate for student-centered policy changes

SKILLS

- Legal Research (LexisNexis, Westlaw)
- Microsoft Office Suite, Google Workspace
- Public Speaking & Policy Analysis